

Newcomers Welcome Committee Event

The committee sponsored a wonderful event to welcome new residents to our community. The new members were supplied with a welcome pack filled with information. There was also snacks and treats and beautiful rocks painted by the committee members. The event was attended by approximately 40 people.

